Closer cooperation between the women of the white and colored races and greater opportunities for the development of leadership among young colored women is the plea of 20 influential colored women from fifteen states who are attending a conference today at the national headquarters of the Y. W. C. A., 600 Lexington avenue, called by the executive committee of the board to discuss these questions.

"We realize the impossibility of achieving Utopia immediately," says Mrs. Mary McLeod Bethune, principal of the Daytona Industrial Institute of Florida and one of the leading delegates, "but we ask that the thought of the white women and of the colored women may be toward closer working together and that some day, as soon as it is feasible, we colored women may have representation on both national and field boards of the Association."

The colored women in attendance represent the Federation of Colored Women's Clubs, several women's civic organizations, some of the large Southern schools and many social clubs. Among the delegates are Mrs. Robert R. Moton, wife of the head of Tuskegee Institute, and Miss Nannie Burroughs, of Washington, D.C. Other states represented are Missouri, Kentucky, North and South Carolina, Georgia, New Jersey, New York, Mississippi, Iowa, Indiana and Pennsylvania.

The National Board of the Y. W. C. A. started work among colored girls 13 years ago, and now has a staff of ten trained colored workers at headquarters in New York City and 98 in different cities of the United States, with 58 centers for colored work. The colored membership is 76,220.

Miss Edna Cook, secretary of the colored work of the Y. W. C. A., addressed the Rochester branch of the National Association for the advancement of the colored people at its meeting at Gannett House last night. During the two years that the War Work Council was in operation an appropriation of $4,000 was made for colored work and there are now 125 workers among the colored people.

Y. W. C. A. departments for colored people have been established in 47 communities in 21 states and during the war 16 hostess houses were managed by colored women workers. Since January 1 five clubs for colored girls have been organized.

Mrs. G. W. Derham gave a vocal solo and Walter Myers played a 'cello solo at the meeting last night.

Miss May B. Belcher, a prominent

Y. W. C. A. worker, has been in the city for the past few days in the interest of a local branch of the Y. W. C. A. Miss Belcher is earnest in her desire to have a Knoxville association. A large number of young ladies were present at the Library where she spoke on last Sunday afternoon. Monday morning she addressed the High School pupils and teachers at the Colored High school and on Monday afternoon a number of the ladies of larger experience were present at the Library to hear her. Following the Monday afternoon meeting, Miss Belcher met the Ministers' Union at the Library and spoke to them. In the evening the Dunbar Debating club had the pleasure of hearing her speak. On all of these occasions Miss Belcher held the interest of her audience with seemingly very little effort. She is a woman of wonderful power and a very forceful speaker.

Mrs. Charles Perkins, of this city, who recently resigned the presidency of the Board of Education, was present at most of these meetings and showed her usual interest and enthusiasm in the movement. It was through the effort of Mrs. Perkins that an appropriation was made for this organization by the Central Association. Mrs. Tillman, president of the Board of Directors, was also present and spoke. Plans are being made by the women of the city to launch a campaign for this movement at the same time that the Central Y. M. C. A. goes out on its campaign. Much interest is being manifested.

Y. W. C. A. NEW BUILDING

PURCHASE HOME ON FIFTH AVENUE, NORTH

Property at 436 Fifth avenue, S., has been purchased for the Negro branch of the Y. W. C. A., the deal having just been closed. The national board of the Y. W. C. A. appropriated $3,000 last year for the first payment on a permanent association building in this city for young Negro women, but the committee having the matter in charge was unable to secure a suitable location until this property became available. Last week the national board made an additional appropriation of a still larger sum for improvements on the newly-secured building and also to cover the expenses of moving. The members of the national board from the department of colored work visited Nashville recently and it was through their influence that the board gave so generously to continue the work here on a larger scale; also on account of the reports made to the national board of the flourishing condition of the colored branch in this city the board announces that it is planned to make the local branch a model demonstration center for the South in colored Y. W. C. A. work.

The colored branch has been located in Napier Court, where headquarters for various association activities were maintained and in the securing of permanent enlarged quarters a boarding home will be added. Although opened only last year, the Negro branch has grown rapidly.

The Colored Branch of the Young Women's Christian Association will launch a campaign for $25,000 May 16 to 26, inclusive, for the support of its work for another year.

There is under construction at Rhode Island avenue and Ninth street n. w. a new building for the housing of the colored branch, an appropriation for the erection of this building having been made in the spring of 1918 by the National War Work Council.

The building will provide accommodations for the housing of forty girls, a cafeteria which will cater to the colored people of the city, with a seating capacity of from 75 to 100 people, gymnasium, social hall, club and rest rooms.

$25,000 RECEIVED BY Y. W. C. A. FOR NEGRO WORK

Philadelphia, Pa. Sept. 25.—A gift of $25,000 from Julius Rosenwald, of Chicago, has been received by the southwest branch of the Young Women's Christian Association in this city and will be used for the continuation of the association's work among colored girls.

In a recent campaign, the southwest branch obtained $80,000 which will be devoted to the erection of a building at Sixteenth and Catharine streets. The site of the proposed building was given to the association by John Wanamaker in 1913.

MISS PINYON GOES TO BROOKLYN "WOMEN'S"

Miss Josephine Pinyon, who, for more than a year and a half, was director of the Employment and Vocational Department, has left on a year's leave to become general secretary of the Ashland Place Branch Y. W. C. A., Brooklyn. Under Miss Pinyon's direction this department of the work was thoroughly organized. The number of placements in business and industries as well as domestic have been increased. Industrial and business girls' clubs organized. Miss Amelia R. Wilches of Columbus, Ohio, will take charge of this work.

NEW HOME FOR COLORED Y. W. C. A.

THE OLD CRANE HOMESTEAD

An old Montclair landmark has changed ownership. A pleasing feature of the transaction is that it is to be preserved and within its portal a Christian work carried on. The Crane homestead, on Glenridge avenue, at the head of Spring street, which has sheltered that family for a century and a quarter, is to be the home of the colored Y. W. C. A., having been purchased by the advisory board.

This well-known house was built shortly after 1795 by Israel Crane, chief citizen of the Cranetown of his time. Many and varied were his interests, and his pre-eminence in various directions earned for him the name of King Crane. One account of him says that he did more to develop this vicinity than any man before or since. He was extremely prosperous himself, but he did not confine his interests to material things. Lavishly he gave of himself and of his goods to the educational and religious activities of the community. His homestead has been in the possession of the Crane family until the present time, when the development of business enterprises in the neighborhood has made the property unsuitable for a private residence. Business upon these premises would not be a novelty, however, for at one time Israel Crane himself conducted there the first store in town, and Spring street, called the "Little Turnpike," was cut through from the Newark and Pompton Turnpike (in which Mr. Crane had a large interest) to make possible a considerable increase in trade.

The organization which is to take over this property is little known in Montclair. It was started in 1912 after an inspiring talk on civic duty by Bishop Lloyd in St. Luke's Episcopal church. The period of seven years which has since elapsed, has been one of steady growth. Through the kindness of Mr. Robert M. Boyd, great-grandson of Mr. Israel Crane, the association has been enabled for all these years to occupy 89 Forest street at merely a nominal rent. But the need for a new home has been apparent for a long time. The present quarters are entirely outgrown. The association can expand no further, although there are obvious opportunities for expansion.

Members adequately. The association does house a limited number of girls temporarily, but it is primarily a recreational and educational center. The number of women using the association per month usually averages over 900.

There are in Montclair at present more than 4,000 colored people. This number 2,500 are women, of whom about 1,500 are engaged in work of some sort, while 500 are girls between the ages of ten and twenty. Already there are 500 members in the association, so that there is a real need for just such a work as the Y. W. C. A. can give. The organization at present consists of two trained workers, Miss Frances Junner, the general Y. W. C. A. secretary, and Miss Pauline Sims, the girls' work secretary. A board of eighteen colored women plan with them the work of the association. Reports are made each month to an advisory board, consisting of the following members: Mrs. Frederick Amerman, Mrs. David A. Burr, Mrs. Irving Cairns, Miss Jeannie T. Ball, Mrs. George W. Cobb, Mrs. H. Baessed at $2,400. Council concurred Cutting, Mrs. William M. Dunlap, Mrs. Maurice H. Ewer, Mrs. Edwin Bessors.

Goodell, Mrs. Howard A. Halligan, Mrs. Arthur C. Harris, Mrs. Frederick B. Lovejoy, Mrs. E. M. McBrier, Mrs.

Shepherd Rowland, Mrs. James Simister, Mrs. James M. Speers, Miss Mary Weeks, Mrs. Charles H. Harris-horne.

The colored women have always earned half of the running expenses, the advisory board, with the contributing members, paying the other half.

For the furnishing fund of a new home the colored women have set out to raise $4,000. Many public-spirited men and women of Montclair are contributing toward a building fund, which has made possible the purchase of this attractive house. $12,000 has been raised and $3,000 is still needed.

It is not without significance that this home, so rich in Montclair traditions, should become the property of a Young Women's Christian Association. The advisory board feels that it is possible in the carrying out of their work to have continued here those Christian ideals which from the time in which the house was built, have made Montclair a place where the better things of life have had a chance to develop. It is hoped that many additional persons will contribute to the building fund for the colored Y. W. C. A. Checks can be sent to Mrs. E. B. Goodell, treasurer, 63 Park street.

Colored Y. W. C. A Women at Sixth Biennial Convention

First Time Colored Women Have Gone As Delegates to National "Y" Meeting— Make Fine Impression

(Special to THE NEW YORK AGE.)

Cleveland, O.—The sixth biennial convention of the Young Women's Christian Association of America met in Cleveland, Ohio, April 13-20. There were 2,725 women representing the associations. There were forty-four colored women in attendance. It is the first time that colored women have been delegates. They were such a representative and capable group that the future leadership among colored women is assured.

Mrs. M. J. McCrorey of Charlotte, N. C., made a splendid speech from the floor for the colored woman and girl, and Miss Clementine Hedges of Wilberforce University brought the admiration of the vast body in her plea in behalf of the student basis. At the section meetings, race women showed themselves capable in discussion of the various phases of the work. During the next two years the cities not able to qualify will have the goal to reach of being represented.

The following is the list of colored women present:

W. C. A. and members of the leading colored organizations.

The South Atlantic Y. W. C. A.

The Conference

BY DE ARONA MCCROREY

On Tuesday, July 13th, a Conference of the Young Women's Christian Associations of the South Atlantic field began at King's Mountain and lasted ten days. Besides the National workers, Field Secretaries, and Girls' Counsellors present, there were girls representing the following cities: Charlotte, Winston-Salem, Newport News, Richmond, Petersburg, Lynchburg, Columbia, Charleston, Augusta and Atlanta. All the delegates came prepared for a great Conference, and they were not disappointed, because we certainly had it.

Our first meeting was on Tuesday evening. It was mostly for business, consisting of the roll call of delegates and reading of the schedule to be followed each day of the Conference.

On Wednesday morning began the work. At the ringing of the 7:40 bell we took our places for flag-raising exercise. This was followed by vigorous setting up exercises directed by Miss Williams. The aim of these exercises was to strengthen the muscles, secure correct posture, and develop the whole body.

At 8:45 we assembled for morning worship, which was led by Miss Lettie Brown. We used the Association hymnals, and the music was indeed beautiful. Each morning Miss Brown chose for Bible reading a Psalm which had for its theme some part of Nature, and she endeavored to create in our minds and hearts a desire to find God in Nature—in trees, flowers, sunshine, and all the beautiful things in his out-of-door world.

From this assembly we passed into our various classes for Bible study. The work taken up here was the life of Jesus—his miracles, temptations, parables, healings, friends, and other things in connection with his life.

We compared the life of Christ with that of the girl and learned that a girl in order to live a noble Christian life must follow the same true principles of living that Christ did. We believe that this was a very valuable study—one of the utmost importance to every girl—and we who were there were greatly benefitted by the study of these lessons.

After the Bible study came recreation hour—a time always looked forward to with great eagerness. This hour afforded much fun as well as a chance for real physical and mental development. Here we learned many new folk dances and games, which we always enjoyed playing. However, we did not use all of this in playing, but spent some of it listening to stories and lectures on health. Thus we learned more about the care and development of our bodies. We loved this hour and now we regret that we can not still enjoy it.

The next meeting was the Girls' Technical Hour. At this time the girls were given an opportunity to discuss together the many problems that continually confront them in their Y. W. C. A. work. The leaders took no part in this except Miss Byrd, who directed the meeting. The girls readily took part in any discussion that came up and together they helped each other. Every girl took notes on the important questions discussed so that on her return home she could give as much of the Conference as she was able to her friends who did not go. We are sure that these forum meetings meant much to every girl, for they were indeed inspiring and full of valuable ideas for all. This ended our meetings for the morning.

In the afternoon we observed quiet hour; after which we went out to seek some form of amusement. Sometimes it was a wade in a cool stream, sometimes a mountain climb or hike, a game of ball or tennis, or anything that was likely to afford pleasure. And we had jolly times together during these afternoons.

We always closed our day's work with an evening meeting. These meetings will always be remembered for the beautiful songs that we sang, the lovely talks of our leaders, and the hearty cheer always present. Sometimes we gathered on the porch, sometimes on the lawn, and, best of all, around the blazing camp-fire. And wherever we were, we felt the joy of fellowship and wore thankful to God for bringing together such a happy crowd of people for such a great cause, and for such joyful meetings.

Every one of the ten days was filled with good things, and when the day came for us to part, it was with sad hearts that we said good-bye to one another.

We have said again and again that this was a splendid Conference. One of the things that helped to make it so was the kind spirit of the girls. Unselfishness was noticeably displayed. We were put into five squads each of which was to strive to gain the highest number of points in conduct, neatness, economy, and club spirit. So instead of each girl working for herself, each girl worked to pull up her entire squad. We used the same principle here that we shall be expected to use in future life: that is, to work not for one's self, but for the benefit of all humanity.

We cannot begin to tell all that the Conference accomplished, but we will say that by bringing together the girls of the various branches of the "Y" in this field, for the exchange of ideas, for contact with their leaders and friends, and for gathering greater zeal and inspiration this Conference has helped to a great extent the work of the Young Women's Christian

Building for Colored Y. M. C. A. To Be Formally Opened Today

The new and modern home of the colored branch of the Y. M. C. A., at 146 Butler street. It is a handsome structure of brick, with lime stone trimmings, which has been scientifically planned according to latest association architecture.

The first of a series of exercises to be held in connection with the opening for use of the new Young Men's Christian Association building for colored men, at 146 Butler street, will be held at 3 o'clock this afternoon in the new gymnasium. Addresses will be made at the formal opening by Dr. R. R. Moton, principal of Tuskegee institute, and by Dr. J. E. Mooreland, senior international secretary of the colored department of the Y. M. C. A. in the United States. Prominent Atlantans who will take part in the exercises are J. K. Orr, John J. Eagan, W. Woods White and Philip Colbert, general secretary of the central association on Luckie street. Professor John Hope, president of Morehouse college, will preside. An invitation to the formal opening has been extended to the white people of the city, for whom special seats will be reserved.

The formal opening of the colored association building for permanent use marks the successful close of the most trying campaigns ever known in Atlanta. According to W. J. Trent, executive secretary of the association, the campaign dates back to January 1, 1911, when Julius Rosenwald, head of Sears-Roebuck company, proposed to give $25,000 to any city in the United States that would put $75,000 into a building for colored men and boys. Simultaneous with the campaign launched for funds for the associations on Luckie street and at Georgia Tech, the colored people of Atlanta pledged $53,000 for a colored building, $25,000 being sub-room, men's bathroom, boys' read- ing room, boys' locker room, boys' lanta. Since that time, however, in- bathrooms, latrines and a swim- campaign conducted by J. K. Orr, and John J. Eagan, white people have contributed to the amount of nearest the entrance, that strangers $65,000. Of the amount pledged by the colored people, $43,000 have out interfering with the associa- been paid, which, with $7,000 de- tion's program, is equipped with rived from the sale of the old the latest sanitary fixtures, includ- building site, makes a total of $50,000 contributed by them.

Leaders in Work.

Leading colored men who were instrumental in making the ex- tended campaign a success were Rev. P. James Bryant, Dr. A. D. Williams, Dr. R. H. Singleton, C. C. Cater, David T. Howard, W. M. Driskell and others. Warm appre- ciation is expressed by the colored people for the assistance rendered in the campaign by Messrs. Orr, Eagan, White and other white peo- ple, whose helpful co-operation made possible the opening of the new association building.

The building, which is located at 146 Butler street, just off Edge- wood avenue, is one of the hand- somest structures in Atlanta, and is ideally adapted in its every detail lobby. On this floor is the lobby, office, men's games room and the gymnasium. A feature of the lobby, or loungeroom, is its wide, old- fashioned fireplace, over which hangs a bronze statue, entitled "In- spiration." It was designed by Mrs. Metta Fuller, of Boston, a pupil of the famous Rodin, of Paris, and represents an angel whispering into the ear of a downcast youth, pointing toward the rising sun, and bidding him rise for the sake of the unborn.

Modern Gymnasium Equipment.

In the rear on this floor is the gymnasium, 65 feet long by 45 feet wide, which is provided with the most modern equipment furnished by the Narraganset Machine com- pany, of Providence, R. I. It is equipped for basketball, volley- ball, indoor baseball, indoor tennis, punching bag, with a bowled race track on the balcony. According to association officials, it is the most adequately equipped and modern gymnasium in the south.

Religious and educational rooms occupy all of the third floor. On this floor is also a large assembly room with a seating capacity of 300 chairs. It is equipped with a dumb waiter from the first floor for banquet purposes.

All of the fourth, fifth and sixth floors will be used for dor- mitory purposes, there being 16 rooms on each floor, with connect- ing bath. These will be supplied with double beds and will accom- modate about one hundred men al- together. The fifth and sixth floors are not yet finished, but will be made ready for occupancy within a short time. It is planned to con- struct a roof garden as soon as these two floors are completed.

In all, the building is a worthy tribute to the generous heart of Mr. Rosenwald and the co-operative Christian spirit of the best people of the two races in Atlanta, making possible a place where the colored men and boys of the city may bet- ter prepare themselves both phys- ically and morally to meet the con- ditions required of them, and thus contribute to the community a more useful and efficient type of boyhood and manhood. The struc- ture was thrown open yesterday afternoon for the first time when to the association's program. It is a six-story building, with exterior dimensions of 65 by 135 feet, con- structed of reinforced concrete with a hard-pressed brick veneer, and is fireproof throughout. A steam heating system has been installed. On the first floor are located a cafeteria, lunchroom, men's locker

In the rear of the first floor is a large, spoon-shaped swimming pool, 48 feet long by 20 feet wide, equipped with a springboard, and with a modern filtration system for purifying water. It is made of white vitrified tile. Abundant nat- ural light is supplied by four large windows on each side.

The second floor is reached through the main entrance, which leads up a flight of steps from Butler street and opens into a large hundreds passed within its doors to view its commodious rooms and splendid equipment.

Officers of the association are: C. E. Jackson, business secretary; W. J. Faulkner, physical secretary, and W. J. Trent, executive secre- tary.

DONATIONS OF MONEY TO Y. M. C. A. OBJECT TO SALE ADVISORY BOARD TAKES STEPS TO PROTECT WORK

The sale of the Colored Y. M. C. A. property has been blocked for the time being by an injunction that was obtained from Judge E. E. Langford Tuesday, according to the report ap- pearing in the afternoon papers of the date. It appears that an effort has been put forth by the Central As- sociation, or rather the directors of the white Association, as it is com- monly called, to sell the property and buildings occupied by the colored branch. Hundreds of people in Nash- ville will recall the whirlwind cam- paign put on some years ago in which nine teams and the Committee of Management, too, hounded Nashville ten days for the purpose of raising a subscription of $20,000.00 to gain a donation of $25,000.00 as they had been promised another sum of $45,000.00 from the white citizens of Nashville all of which was to be used for the purpose of building or constructing a $125,000.00 modern Y. M. C. A. building. The Rosenwald gift is understood to have started the ball rolling. To make this campaign a success the Nashville Globe publish- ed a daily paper at a cost of over $100 per day, which amount was donated by one of the Y. M. C. A. members, in addition to his regular subscription. The colored campaign was a success; the white campaign was never put over, Mr. Rosenwald's gift was never secured; but the colored people got together, it appears, some of the pledge money and bought property on Cedar street and Fifth Avenue. They afterwards purchased the Duncan Hotel which had been standing idle for years, and which, according to the people who owned the mortgage, is said not to have been bringing sufficient revenue to meet the taxes. The building was thrown open after it had been purchased, and it was un- derstood that it was decided to the Central Association to be held in trust for the colored Y. or the col- ored people. It is said that since the building was first opened, what was a dead corner and a dead side of the street at once sprung into new life when Christian and religious activi- ty reached that part of the street, so that the property enhanced in value and became the civic center, so to speak, and so it is claimed by the city of Nashville for the 35,000 colored population. Some few weeks ago it developed that the Central Associa- tion had struck a bargain and could get $100,000.00 for the building that less than five years ago sold for $68,000.00, and according to the well informed people this sale was at- tempted without even consulting the colored Y. M. C. A. and without giv- ing them any assurance that a home would be provided for them or that the Y. M. C. A. work would be con- tinued.

It seems that overture after over- ture was made to the white Board of Directors to not sell the property and thus close the only place where the Negro men and boys could meet for religious worship and other past time. As a result, the matter seems to have been taken to the court and an injunction was granted, according to the following clipping from the Nashville Tennessean Tuesday even- ing.

The purchase by the Nashville Y.
M. C. A. of the Duncan Hotel building to be used as the Negro branch of the Y. M. C. A. is a happy solution of two problems that have been somewhat vexatious. In the first place, it has been a difficult matter to find a suitable building suitably located for A Negro Y. M. C. A. In the second place, it has seemed a shame to allow so excellent a building as the Duncan Hotel to go to waste. The building is admirably fitted and admirably located to serve its new purpose, and it could render no greater service than in doing this purpose.

The white people of Nashville—those of them who are interested in the general well-being of Nashville—should be very keenly alive to the importance of this matter. The proper training, physical, intellectual and moral, of Negro men, is certainly a matter of almost vital importance to the general public. Let us look at the matter for a moment from a purely economic viewpoint. The Negro when he is efficient, gives the best service that the South has or can hope for. Most of us have realized all along, but it was brought more forcefully to the general attention a few months ago when the news began to be printed in the papers of the country that the Negroes of the South were being moved North in great numbers by industrial concerns.
The Negro is needed where he was born and where he belongs—but he needs to have such training as will make him manually capable, intellectually alert and morally straightrect to R. H. King, Candler building Atlanta, Ga.

is no better equipped agency than
the Y. M. C. A.
The new Negro branch of the Nashville Y. M. C. A., when equipped and put in service, will be of the very best economic benefit to the community of Nashville. Every Negro man who will patronize it sustains some sort of serviceable relationship of some white person, and there are very few white persons in Nashville but are dependent in some way upon some of these Negroes.
Every Negro will be better qualified to give service because of the Y. M.
C. A., and very few people will be better served.

Y. M. C. A. - 1920

HOW THE Y. M. C. A. WILL SPEND

ITS SURPLUS

Literary Digest 6/5/20

THE QUESTION as to what the Y. M. C. A. did with the vast funds raised for war-purposes through popular subscription and what has become of the surplus is answered in its recently published report. The total funds placed in the hands of the War-Work Council for work among soldiers under the American flag and for soldiers under Allied flags as well, particularly the French and Italian, amounted to about $162,000,000.

The outlay up to the close of 1919 was $129,000,000. The balance of nearly $33,000,000, we are told by The Continent (Presbyterian), "has constituted a difficult problem for the finance committee."

The money could not be returned to the donors, and, since it was impossible to go on with the work for which it was expressly contributed, owing to the unexpectedly early ending of the war, it became the task of the administrators to settle upon such disposition as would seem best to meet the approval from supporters of the original program.

As to how the problem was met we learn:

"The decision as published begins with the donation of $1,821,000 to the Federal Government for continuation of welfare work in Army and Navy up until July 1, when at the beginning of the Government's fiscal year the first Congressional appropriation for this purpose will become available. An additional sum of nearly a million is set aside to continue Y. M. C. A. work with the detachments of the Army still doing guard duty on the Rhine in Germany. Another lump of $5,000,000 is allotted to be spent in scholarships for former soldiers, sailors and marines who wish education.

"It has also been determined to go on with Y. M. C. A. service to the Allied armies and to prisoners of war until peace conditions are fully restored, and $11,000,000 is allotted to this purpose. Out of a large unallotted surplus still remaining, it is proposed to retain for at least two years a reserve fund which the Y. M. C. A. will keep on hand for any other national emergency in which it regards itself able to serve the public interest. An interesting side item brought out by the audit is the fact that the operation of the canteens in France, where deficit was considered certain, showed an unexpected balance of $500,000, because the French and American governments remitted a lot of transportation charges. This sum has been donated to the American Legion."

The Clean-Up Week campaign was well launched for the week of May 17 to 24. It has been a pleasure to see the children and parents fulfilling their pledges to help make the city cleaner, better and more beautiful. The north division, extending from 22d street to 39th street, has about finished its task, while the south division, extending from 39th street to 59th street, is still working. The Douglas and Raymond schools of the north division have special mention. Miss Susan Bonfield, principal of the Douglas school, 32d street and Forest avenue, used the occasion to advantage by having the children write letters on the reverse side of the pledge cards, informing the war superintendent of the location of rubbish; 266 pledges were signed. Words of praise came in from outside sources relative to the splendid work done by the children under the direction of John Lewis, principal of Raymond school, 36th street and Wabash avenue. 104 pledges were signed. The south division will be ready next week. A beautiful American flag will be given to the school with the largest number of pledges. * The Armour glee club meets every Tuesday evening at 7:45. * The Morris glee club meets every Wednesday evening at 7:45. * Prof. J. ROSENWALD RENEWS OF-FER TO BUILD Y. M. C. A.
Extends $25,000 Offer Ten
Years — Provided Others
Give $125,000 8-7-20

CHICAGO, July 29. — Julius Rosenwald who has made possible the erection of thirteen Y. M. C. A. buildings during the last ten years
by contributions amounting to $350-000 made thru the Chicago Y. M. C.
A., has made a new offer to extend over a period of two years, whereby he will contribute $25,000 toward the cost of a building in any city in America, whose citizens white or black will match it with a fund of $125,000.

Names Conditions
He makes but two stipulations.
The building must include separate quarters for men and boys, a standard gymnasium, a swimming pool, class and club rooms, a well-managed restaurant and dormitory rooms.
But unless L. Wilbur Messer, the general secretary of the local Y. M.
C. A. and William J. Parker, the business manager, feel sure that the subscription list is bona fide, and the people who are petitioning for aid are capable of managing the building which they will own and financing and administering the work of the local organization. Mr. Rosenwald will withhold his offer.

Strained Relations
"Unexpected conditions have sprung up having bearing upon the Negro Race," said Mr. Rosenwald. "The influx of the blacks to the North has developed race relations of increasing strain. To offset this there is an increased interest in the welfare of the Negroes.

"I think that canvassing campaigns to provide these institutions will bring white and colored people together in wholesome co-operation.
There are already requests for aid from eleven cities, and the record of the thirteen buildings already erected thru our original plan is so satisfactory that I feel that they will be successful permanently.

Will Give $25,000
"Therefore I am ready to help.
Any city in America which will spend $125,000 on a building or equipment for the use of Negro men and boys need only make application, guarantee the fitness of its management, and promise to complete the construction within six months and the local Y. M. C. A. will issue the $25,000."

DUNCAN HOTEL SALE ENJOINED FOR TIME.

Negro Y. M. C. A. Members Protest Against Proposed Transfer of Property.

Charging that the officers and directors of the Young Men's Christian Association are contemplating the sale of the building now used by the colored branch of the Y. M. C. A. in Nashville, without regard to the wishes of the colored men, Attorney General C. B. Kirkpatrick this morning on relation of a large number of prominent Negroes, filed a bill in the Chancery Court asking an injunction against the sale of the building, and petitioning that the present arrangement be declared a charitable trust, and that the trust fund consist of contributions from members of the colored Y. M. C. A. and their friends and sympathizers.

"The bill recites the organization of the colored men's branch, the purchase of the site on the corner of Cedar street and Sixth avenue, the growth of the organization requiring larger quarters, and the purchase of the present building, formerly the Duncan Hotel. The first site was purchased to be held by the Y. M. C. A.
in trust for the colored men's branch but through error title was taken by the Y. M. C. A.

"Attention was, however, called to this, and the directors of the Y. M. C.

A. adopted a resolution declaring that the Y. M. C. A. held the property in trust for the colored branch. The same error was made and similarly corrected in the purchase of the Duncan Hotel site.

"Notwithstanding the bill alleges that the Y. M. C. A. is now contemplating the sale of the present site to the National Baptist Convention, incorporated in Washington, D. C., for purposes entirely different from those of the Y. M. C. A.

Inquiry as to the truth of this report, the bill states, elicited no definite reply except that the directors of the Y. M. C. A. insisted on their right to transfer the property without regard to the wishes of the colored branch. An inquiry as to what provision would be made for the branch thus ousted brought no satisfactory answer, the bill states.

"If the sale be consummated, it is alleged, the activities of the colored branch will be paralyzed. When bought it brought in practically no revenue, but now, through the interest aroused, the monthly rental is $350. By reason of this location, also, the bill states, there has been a gradual growth in commercial activity
among the Negro race.

"Judge E. F. Langford signed the order for a writ of injunction on execution of a $1,000 bond.

HEAVY INFUX OF NEGROES CHANGES Y. M. C. A. PROGRAM

COLUMBUS DISPATCH

R. L. Dickinson Says 60 Per Cent of Columbus' Foreign Population Has Left.

GIVES YEAR'S REPORT

Enrolled 236 Children of 10 Nationalities.

Departure of foreign-born residents from Columbus and heavy influx of negroes from the south has completely changed the program of the Y. M. C. A. in its South Side extension activities in the past two years, according to Raymond L. Dickinson,
in charge of the South Side work,
who has completed a report to J. W.
Pontius, general secretary of the association.

"Sixty per cent of the foreigners in the South Side have left Columbus in the past two years," says Dickinson. "We now have three times the colored population there that we had three years ago."

NO "FOREIGN PROBLEM."
Dickinson predicts that the city will never again have a serious "foreign problem." He says that the colored population is here to stay.

The "Y" has opened a community house for negroes at 2098 South Parsons avenue and since May 1 has had a full-time colored secretary on its staff for the South Side work.

Only 150 foreigners were enrolled in Y. M. C. A. classes in English last year. This phase of Americanization work has been turned over to the public schools this year.

SUMMER'S WORK.
In four summer months the South Side branch reached more people than in any year previously, Dickinson reports. Participants in summer activities totaled 71,591. Four baseball leagues were maintained, and horseshoes and tennis were other sports promoted. Noon "movies" in industrial plants reached 10,000 persons. Two playgrounds were operated with a total attendance of 22,
000. A seven weeks' vacation school enrolled 236 girls and boys of ten nationalities.

OPENS WAY FOR MANY COLORED Y. M. C. A.'S

CHICAGO ILL. NEWS
JULY 16, 1920

Julius Rosenwald Will Give $25,000 to Any City Raising $125,000 Fund.

In connection with his recent offer of a gift of $25,000 toward a fund of $150,000, the balance to be raised by popular subscription participated in by white and colored people, for the purchase of land and the erection of a Y. M. C. A. building for colored men and boys in any city of the United States where such facilities are now needed, Julius Rosenwald made the following statement:

"July 6, 1920. The Young Men's Christian Association of Chicago—Gentlemen: Ten years ago it was my privilege to offer through your organization to aid colored people in securing facilities for education, recreation and service such as are afforded white people through Y. M. C. A. buildings in Chicago and other cities. It seemed to me that, both in the interest of the colored race and in the interest of the country, it was essential that there should be in every community in which there are large numbers of negroes a building, primarily for men and boys, devoted to their use. They had not in their own ranks a sufficient number whose means enabled them to provide such institutions. It, therefore, seemed the duty of white people to show interest in the welfare of these their neighbors by helping to supply this need. "It was important that the best and most permanent local organization, such as the Y. M. C. A., take the matter in hand so that the institutions might be successfully managed. So I made the offer through it.

Thirteen Buildings Provided.

"Since 1910 thirteen buildings have been provided. Your recent survey of the eleven long enough in active service to be judged fairly disclosed reasonably satisfactory results and gave promise that they will be successful permanently.

"Since the original offer new and unexpected conditions have developed, especially in the industrial centers of the north. The negro migration has added large numbers to the colored population in many cities. Race relations show an increasing strain; but to help counteract this there is increased interest in the welfare of negroes. This increased interest is promoted by the Y. M. C. A. buildings. Canvassing campaigns to provide these institutions bring white and colored people together in wholesome co-operation. They are united by a mutual interest. The buildings themselves not only afford good service for those otherwise denied this because of unreasonable discrimination, but are helpful in improving racial understandings; and these are the foundation of better relations.

"The new and unexpected conditions referred to and the fact that eleven cities now desire aid, as I am informed, in erecting these institutions convince me that another building program is necessary. I am ready to help. As the time limit in my original offer has expired, I am glad to authorize you to continue the work for another period of two years, under terms somewhat modified by changed circumstances.

New Offer Is Set Forth

"My new offer, then, is to contribute $25,000 toward the cost of a building in any city of the United States, which by popular subscription, participated in by white and colored people, shall raise not less than $125,000 to be devoted to the purchase of the land for each such institution, the erection of the building and its equipment and furnishing. You may determine in what communities you will endeavor to raise funds, but no building is to be erected under this offer, until you are satisfied of the desire and ability of the local organization, which will own and manage the institution, properly to finance and administer the work.

Each building is to include the following features: (1) Separate quarters for men and boys; (2) Standard gymnasium; (3) Swimming pool; (4) Class of the United States where such facilities are now needed, Julius Rosenwald not fewer than fifty dormitory rooms.

"The general secretary and the business manager of the Y. M. C. A. of Chicago are to be consulted and their approval secured on all building plans before contracts are let.

"Upon the statement by you, at any time or times within the next two years, through L. Wilbur Messer, your general secretary, and William J. Parker, your business manager, or their successors, that bona fide subscriptions of at least the amount of $125,000 have been raised in any community in the United States for the foregoing purpose and that in your judgment the local organization desires and is able properly to finance and administer the work, my obligation in respect to the proposed institution in that community becomes fixed. Payment of my contribution will be made through you as soon as not less than $75,000 of the amount subscribed locally has been collected and actually expended for land and building; and provided assurance can be given me that the building will be completed within six months thereafter.

"Thanking you for your aid in continuing this work and expressing the hope that the new offer made by me will be instrumental in encouraging many communities to secure buildings, I am, sincerely yours,

"JULIUS ROSENWALD."

Previous Contributions.

Mr. Rosenwald has made previous contributions totaling $350,000 during the last five years, as a result of which other funds have been collected and buildings, each costing from $150,000 to $300,000, have been erected in Chicago, New York, Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Brooklyn, Atlanta, Cincinnati, Columbus, St. Louis, Indianapolis, Kansas City and one for the Y. W. C. A. in New York.

Mr. Rosenwald's new proposition opens an opportunity for any city not provided with such a building to take the necessary steps to raise the necessary funds and avail itself of his gift.

AID SOUGHT FOR COLORED Y. M. C. A.

CAMDEN N. J. TELEGRAM
AUGUST 20, 1920

Friend Will Give $800 if Sponsors Succeed in Raising $700.

APPEAL TO BE MADE THROUGH PULPITS

Efforts are being made to raise a fund for the organization of a colored Y. M. C. A. whose sponsors feel will result in a much needed service to the race. This morning it was reported that instead of raising $500, as originally intended, efforts will be made to make it $700 because a business man and a friend of the colored race has promised to give $800 if that sum is realized. That will make, with the $1500 already in hand, a total of $3,000 which it is felt, will very materially aid in putting the movement on a substantial basis.

Those who are back of the movement stated this morning that there is no reason why it should not be given every possible encouragement because it means much to the city to have an organization that will look after Camden negroes in an effective manner. Those of the colored race are particularly appealed to for subscriptions.

The following appeal has been sent to the several colored churches which will be read from the pulpits Sunday:

"No race movement can well succeed without the support of the preacher.

"A colored Men's Branch Y. M. C. A. in Camden means race betterment and race advancement.

"In order to secure this much needed association we must raise $500 by the first of September.

"Will you show that you are for this movement by asking both your morning and evening congregations for two special collections on Sunday, August 22, and again on Sunday, August 29?"

"Our special representative will be there. If he is not, will you see to it that these collections are taken up and that they reach the undersigned?"

"We rely on you to lend us your earnest, energetic, enthusiastic and whole-hearted support.

"Yours for co-operative service,

"Dr. C. T. Branch, President.

"Howard H. Thompson, Treasurer.

"Edward R. Richardson, Secretary."

Men's mass meetings will be held at the Parish House, on Sunday, August 22, and at the Kaign Avenue Baptist Church, the following Sunday at 4:15 p. m. Women are invited.

Columbus, O., Oct. 8.—Departure of foreign-born residents from Columbus and heavy influx of colored people from the south has completely changed the program of the Y. M. C. A. in its South Side extension. There are also classes in French, short-hand and physical culture, according to Raymond L. Dickinson, in charge of the South Side work, who has completed a report to J. W. Pontius, general secretary of the association.

"Sixty per cent of the foreigners in the South Side have left Columbus in the past two years," says Dickinson. "We now have three times the colored population there that we had three years ago."

No Foreign Problem

Dickinson predicts that the city will never again have a serious "foreign problem." He says that the colored population is here to stay.

The "Y" has opened a community house for colored people and has had a full-time colored secretary on its staff for the South Side work.

Only 150 foreigners were enrolled in Y. M. C. A. classes in English last year. This phase of Americanization work has been turned over to the public schools this year.

With View of Securing Night School.

Activities at the negro Young Woman's Christian Association on Madison avenue and Twenty-third street are varied and interesting, and the "Y" center is a popular gathering place for the women of that section.

Under auspices of the religious work committee vesper services were held February 15. Rev. Galvin gave an address on "Woman's Choice." About 9 people were present. These services are held every Sunday afternoon.

An enjoyable feature of Saturday evening was a Valentine party.

Nine clubs with a membership of 175 have been organized among the girls under the direction of the Girls' Work secretaries. During January this department handled about 325 girls.

The committees including religious work, girls' work, educational, membership, finance and committee on management are co-operating in a splendid manner.

An educational survey is being conducted by the committee on education with the idea of securing through the city Board of Education an adequate night school for the negro women and girls of the city. In the meantime classes in common school branches are being taught at the "Y" every Monday and Wednesday evening. There are also classes in French, short-hand and physical culture.

Team No. 3—Captain J. J. Merrill, James L. Johnson, Charles Wright, Chas. Hayes, W. H. Thomas, Nathan Thornton, Hery Clark and C. W. Moore.

Mrs. Bessie Braithwaite and Mrs. Kate Polk, assisted by Miss Mary Robinson, Miss Mary Jefferson, Miss Beatrice Williams, Miss Julia Polk and Miss Marion Thompson served coffee, sandwiches, ice cream and cake to the workers and contributed materially to the enthusiasm and success of the evening.

After the captains and team members finished selecting names handed in by pastors of various churches and friends of the project Rev. George E. Morris stimulated all present with a timely speech. He advised them that this movement was a test of the sincerity of the colored business men of Camden, and also of their willingness to co-operate. He expressed his delight because of the bright outlook and advised them to go forward and win. He urged them to accept the challenge of the Central Y. M. C. A. directors who are pledged not to work unless they but to work with them.

Secretary Richardson asked all team members to report to their captains the night, Tuesday and finally on Wednesday night and the captains in turn reported to him at the parish house the same nights.

Income From Inman

Bequest Is Sought

For Negro Y. M. C. A.

The 1920 council is asked in communication from E. H. Inman, filled with the city clerk Wednesday, to help complete the new colored Y. M. C. A. building with the income from 250 shares of The Constitution Publishing company preferred stock, which his father, the late Hugh T. Inman, bequeathed the city of Atlanta, the income from which was to be used for such charitable purposes as was determined by the mayor and general council. "Being interested in the completion of the new building of the colored Y. M. C. A.," says Mr. Inman, "and believing it to be a good investment for all the citizens of Atlanta, and being advised that work on this building has now been stopped for lack of funds, but that only a few thousand dollars are needed to so far complete the building as to make it usable, I am writing you to say that you would have the cordial appreciation of the family, if in your wisdom income from this stock could be used during 1920 for the purpose of helping towards the completion of this building."

GREAT PROGRESS SHOWN

IN COLORED "Y" REPORT

INDIANAPOLIS IND NEWS

MAY 27, 1920

ACTIVITIES HAVE INCREASED IN MANY WAYS.

BUDGET RECEIPTS $36,000

The annual report of the colored men's branch of the Young Men's Christian Association, filed with the board of management Wednesday, showed a large increase in the association's activities in almost all lines.

In the religious department, the total attendance at the Bible classes was 1,122, and at the Monster Meetings, 8,283. Those joining church numbered twenty-seven, and in the life problems class, 188 were enrolled. The association contributed $801 to outside work, as follows: foreign work, $500; state work, $100; international committee, $100; Harper's Ferry Summer School, $101.

Educational Progress.

In the education department, the report showed that for the Monday evening educational lectures, twelve prominent speakers among the colored people were brought to the city at the expense of the association. An art and industrial exhibit was held from April 12 to 17, in which twenty-four local business enterprises exhibited their work. In the class work, twenty-four young men completed the automobile school, sixteen being ex-soldiers who received scholarships through the soldier's scholarship fund.

In the boys' department, a class in Christian citizenship was conducted. The older boys' conference was entertained by the local branch, the attendance from six states being about 250, and the organization has been invited to hold its next session here. The department has conducted moving picture shows of the educational type in several public schools, has organized Y. M. C. A. clubs in the schools, and has had charge of the Thomas E. Taylor memorial, presenting a medal to the boy receiving the highest mark in general efficiency. A high "Y" club has been organized among the older boys of the local high school.

Physical Department Thrives.

Five gym classes have been conducted in the physical department. The total number of baths was 27,000; three representative basket ball teams have played; 4,200 men used the swimming pool and thirty-nine hikes were conducted for the boys. The total number of spectators for the activities of the physical department was 8,356.

In the industrial department, twelve shops have been visited, forty-two athletic meetings held with an attendance of 4,442; fifty-six men served on the shop committees and 16,282 men attended the noontime meetings.

The association has conducted vocational guidance conferences with every colored boy who completed the eighth grade in the city public schools, only two boys having signified an intention not to enter high school.

Under the heading special activities, $1,358 was raised for the Sullivan fund and turned over to the Children's Aid Association for the benefit of Jimmy Sullivan, whose father lost his life trying to rescue two colored boys from drowning; twenty families were supplied with coal at Christmas time; picture shows have been conducted at the Orphan's Home and regular visits were made to the City Hospital and many cases where assistance was needed investigated.

Aid to Discharged Men.

A soldier secretary was employed to look after discharged men, and a post of the American Legion was formed. A hundred and fifty three-month memberships were given to discharged men; 120 men were informed on war risk insurance, and other matters pertaining to the service, and the association has been host to the men of four local shops, the total attendance being 2,900.

The membership of the branch at the end of the fiscal year was 1,415 boys and 1,474 men, the total being 2,889, making the local branch the largest in the country. The budget is $13,000 larger than in 1918, the receipts for the year being $36,000, and the balance in the treasury $850, after all indebtedness was paid.

In all, 1,075 men received employment through the association, 51,000 beds were occupied, 20,470 men were touched in an educational way, and 4,165 attended social gatherings.

ANNIE MALONE GIVES NEGRO Y. M. C. A. $595

The boys' department of the colored branch of the Y. M. C. A. is rejoicing today because of the announcement by Secretary W. J. Trent that President Annie M. Malone, of the Poro college, St. Louis, Mo., has just sent a check for $595 to furnish the boys' room in the new Y. M. C. A. building. President Malone has already given $7,500 to the colored Y. M. C. A. in St. Louis, but she has been much interested in the Atlanta branch ever since the matter was presented to her some weeks ago by Secretary Trent. The committee of management of the Y. M. C. A. is very grateful for this splendid gift to Atlanta.

Y. M. C. A. YEAR BOOK

SHOWS BIG GAINS

IN ALL ACTIVITIES

The Y. M. C. A. Year Book for 1920, just published, shows the greatest gain in all lines of association work in any year of its history. Tremendous gains in membership and activities are shown by reports from the associations reporting. Growth and development in Georgia can best be shown by a comparison of the 1920 figures with those of 1919, during which year membership was 9,600, compared to 13,700 in 1920. Property value in 1919 was $1,112,000, as compared to the 1920 figure of $1,742,000. Attendance at religious meetings increased from 75,000 in 1919 to 95,000 in 1920; gym classes from 3,241 to 3,455, and counties surveyed from 1,230 to 1,230.

There are many other items of service, each one showing an increase over last year, and officials are highly gratified at the splendid gains shown.

This drive comes in conjunction with the $30,000 "Y" drive which is now in progress. The War Work Council gave $2,650 to sustain the branch last summer. Out of this amount sufficient furniture was purchased from the powder plant to furnish accommodations in a home for fifty girls. Recently the War Work Council gave $3,000 as first payment on such a home in Nashville.

It is said that many colored girls who know how to render intelligent service shrink from availing themselves of excellent opportunities to serve in families because of inadequate housing accommodations.

Five Thousand Dollars Will Be Raised for Building Purposes.

A $5000 drive is about to be launched to provide funds for equipping a branch Y. W. C. A. building for the colored people of this city. The need for such a building has been felt for some time, as at present girls and women coming to the city have no place to go until employed or properly lodged. A social center will be established where community service activities will take place, and the younger folks can indulge in various recreations when not otherwise engaged.

To discuss this matter and perfect arrangements for raising $5000, a mass meeting will be held Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at Mount Olivet Baptist church, Broadway near Everett, when speeches will be made by officials of the local Y. W. C. A.

An employment bureau will be attached to this institution. All activities will be in charge of a young colored woman of experience and training.
